Starting and Staying.

At the start in a long race, the advantage often appears to be with an outsider. But the race is won not in starting but in staying. The quality which wins is staying power. It is in the race of life. Staying power wins, and as a rule the best stayer is the man with the best stomach. All physical strength is derived from food which is properly digested and assimilated. When the food is not properly digested and assimilated there is a loss of nutrition which means a loss of strength and the general result is physical break-down.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery gives strength and staying power, because it cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It enables the perfect digestion and assimilation of the food eaten, and so strengthens the body naturally by the nutrition derived from food.

"I was troubled with indigestion for about two years," writes Wm. Bowles, of Jacksonville, Fla. "I tried different doctors and remedies but to no avail, until I wrote to you and you told me what to do. I suffered with a pain in my stomach and left side and thought that it would kill me. Now I am glad to write this and let you know that I am all right. I can do my work now without pain and I don't have that tired feeling that I used to have. Five bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and two vials of his 'Pleasant Pellets' cured me."

Accept no substitute for Golden Medical Discovery. There is nothing "just as good" for diseases of the stomach, blood and lungs.

Dr. Pierce's Pellets are easy and pleasant to take. A most effective laxative.

FOR OVER SIXTY YEARS. AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over sixty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for Diarrhea. Is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind.

BURNED AT THE STAKE.

Dudley Morgan, a negro, was burned at the stake near Hallville, one hundred miles east of Dallas, Texas, yesterday afternoon for assaulting on Saturday last Mrs. McKee, the wife of a section foreman on the Texas Pacific Railway. The McKee house was robbed and among the things taken were a number of marked silver dollars. They were described by the McKee family to the pursuers of the criminal.

Ever since the crime a man hunt has been kept up, joined in by farmers, merchants, railroad men, and others, who used bloodhounds in the chase. Morgan was captured near Mount Pleasant in northeastern Texas before daylight yesterday morning by a large posse, who at once started back to the village of Lansing, fifty miles distant, where the McKee family lived.

News of the capture spread and by noon special trains, made up and taken possession of by the mob, were run on the Texas and Pacific road, picking up crowds at Marshall, Langtry, Hallville, and Lansing, until 4,000 men, nearly all armed with guns, were assembled at the place selected for the burning.

Morgan was identified at Lansing as the negro who committed the assault. The marked silver dollars were found in his pockets. He then conferred his crime and members of the crowd selected for the work bound him with chains to a railroad rail placed upright in the center of a large open field. After being bound Morgan made this statement: "Tell my wife good-by, and tell her how I went. Tell her I am guilty of the charge, and it all occurred on account of Whaley Hard. He persuaded me to do it, and said he would do the same thing. We planned it at the section house before Saturday."

Whaley Hard is a negro who the mob strung up to force from him a confession on Sunday last, but who was not lynched, as the mob was not satisfied of his guilt. He and Morgan exchanged clothes after the crime on Saturday.

When Morgan's confession had been heard the mob piled dry brush, dry wood, grass, straw, and other materials around him, poured oil over it and over him and then applied matches. For fifteen minutes the burning man writhed and screamed and then became silent. The body burned for more than an hour and was nearly all consumed. The officers of the law were powerless against the mob, and there was no time to call out the militia.

A mob is searching for Whaley Hard and another burning is almost sure to take place.

MEAT RIOTS.

"Kosher meat" disturbances broke out in the west end section of Boston yesterday. About 300 Hebrews, men, women, and children, assembled in front of a meat store on Brighton street and threw eggs and decayed fruit at the building. The windows were smashed and the stock of meats ruined. The police interfered and arrested two women and one man, who were the ringleaders. A customer who was leaving the store with a piece of meat was assaulted and a woman was injured during the stampede of the crowd. Later crowds attacked two meat stores in the north end, smashed the windows, and spoiled the stock. A turbulent crowd of Hebrews also assembled on Harrison avenue, south end, at a new "Kosher meat" store which had been opened by a firm of wholesale butchers. The union butchers, who have had their shops closed for the past two weeks owing to the high price of meat, assembled near the store and made addresses. The excitement became so great that the police were summoned. The crowd was then kept moving.

Anton Gurecki, who, it is said, was forced out of business as a meat dealer when prices took an upward bound, few weeks ago, has hanged himself. Gurecki's business fell off when prices were raised and rather than suffer further losses he closed his shop. Since then he had been despondent.

Seven hundred men, women, and children attacked the shop of a Norfolk street butcher last night. The butcher had opened his store for the sale of meat, disregarding the edict of the East Side people that no meat should be sold. The butcher refused to obey the mob that ordered him to close, and before the police reserves could be summoned his place was a wreck. Four arrests were made.

VIRGINIAN DIDN'T GET HER.—A dispatch from Oswego, N. Y., says: "Penniless and with his dream of love, happiness and a home shattered, J. J. Kell, of Richmond, Va., applied to Charity Clerk Kelly for work and funds to carry him back to the South. Kell answered a matrimonial advertisement and corresponded with a wealthy widow of Oswego. Every mail carried messages of affection to his sweetheart, and he received pledges of undying love in return. Attracted by visions of wealth and happiness, he threw up his job in Richmond and went to Oswego to claim his bride. He stayed at a hotel here until his funds were exhausted, and then the widow refused to marry him. Kell says he will answer no more matrimonial advertisements.

WIFE KILLED BY A JOKE.—Mrs. W. G. Snook, wife of Corp'l Snook, of the Ninth Artillery band, stationed at Fort Riley, Kan., has died at her home of burns received as the result of a joke perpetrated by her husband. Mrs. Snook had hidden in an outbuilding and in a spirit of fun locked her husband out. Snook poured some gasoline on the stone steps and lit it, intending to frighten her. The flames were drawn in under the door and enveloped Mrs. Snook, who died several hours later in terrible agony. She was a companion to the last and exonerated her husband, insisting that his act was intended as a joke.

"One Minute Cough Cure is the best cough medicine I ever used," says J. W. Bowles, Groverton, N. H. "I never found anything else that acted so safely and quickly." For sale by E. S. Lombard & Sons.
